Fall is definitely here! The tree colors are becoming a warm kaleidoscope of beautiful hues and tones. Our mornings are a bit chilly but the sun continues to shine brightly with clean and crisp moderate air. And, our fall show will soon be here as well, on November 16th and 17th.

We will be sending out the show prospectus in October and I'll be passing around our volunteer form at the October meeting. Your help in getting the show organized and staffed is essential to the show's success. So please don't be shy and join one of the show committees. In the meantime, get two of your best pieces of artwork ready to be hung in the juried exhibit and don't forget some pieces for the bin sales. As things begin to take shape we will keep everyone informed of our progress.

Thanks to Paul Guarino's efforts and the generosity of our sponsors EMC Corp. and Rockland Trust we have already received commitments for $2,000 to offset this year's show costs!

Once again, our October meeting will feature an excellent demonstration by Eli Cedrone who paints figurative works, interiors and land/seascapes primarily in oils. Eli is an accomplished painter and a member of the Oil Painters of America, the Portrait Society of America, the Copley Society and the Guild of Boston Artists among others. She is a graduate of Boston's School of Art & Design, Suffolk University and the School of MFA. Eli also studied painting in Italy and she has worked professionally as an Illustrator and Magazine designer.

Our workshop with Jonathan McPhillips (10-20-13) now has 12 attendees, so there is still room for a couple more. Give Adele Corregan a call (508-695-0739) if you would like to attend the workshop.

I look forward to seeing you at the meeting.

Take care,

Frank

Meetings take place at the Franklin Senior Center, 10 Daniel McCahill St., Franklin, MA across from St. Mary's church, from 6:30 to ~9pm, the first Wednesday of every month, September through May. Refreshments and socialization are held from 6:30-6:45pm, followed by a short business meeting. A demonstration/lecture or workshop activity follows. Our meetings are open to the public and all are invited to attend.

Calender of Events

Oct. 2nd - Eli Cedrone will be the featured demonstrator she will be doing a landscape in oils. <http://www.elicedrone.com>

Nov. 6th - Linee Baird will demo a night scene in pastel.

Nov. 16 -17th FAA Fall Show at Bellingham Library Saturday Nov. 16th 11am - 9pm, Sunday Nov. 17th 12pm - 4pm. Drop off Friday evening.

FAA Workshop with Jonathan McPhillips:

The Jonathan Mc Phillips workshop being held on Sunday, October 20th will be focusing on oil painting. The theme of the workshop will be landscape. Jonathan will do a marine/seascape demo in oil.

Painters who use other media, are welcomed. He feels he can help with the broader areas of painting, should painters want to use other media but wants them to know, the focus will be on oil painting.

He has a loose but efficient approach to painting that produces energized results.

This will be an encouraging environment with friendly critique and advice.

He wants us to have a fulfilling and enjoyable experience that helps us grow as artists.

You will want to bring your own photos, sketches and paintings to work from.

If you are interested in attending, please contact Adele Corrigan at at4624@verizon.net We will have a cut off of about 15 people.

Scholarship Raffle Donations:

Donations are greatly appreciated to continue our scholarship award to a student pursuing a career in art. Please email tinaguarinoart@gmail.com with a description of your donation.

For framed paintings please include artist name, size(w/o frame) media and title.

Bristol Community College on 2 November is focusing on Civil War "Technology & the Visual Arts," and they would love to have some paintings or illustrations. While we can probably afford to have a small number of prints made of period pieces, it would be wonderful to have some works from the Masterpiece Masquerade competition that both Franklin & Foxboro are working on. If anyone has yet to select an original piece to mimic (and amend), here are a number of appropriate artists:

Winslow Homer

Sarah Peale

Alfred Waud

Eastman Johnson

Frederic Edwin Church

Albert Bierstadt

Sanford Robinson Gifford

The event is only from about ten until two, and the paintings would be in a supervised area (although someone from the art association might want to be present in case of a sale). I appreciate whatever you can do to encourage a few folks to tackle one of these!

Best,
Chuck Veit

Acrylic Lecture Demo

Adria Arch

Adria Arch is a painter and a member of the Bromfield Gallery in Boston's South End. Her work is included in the collections of the Boston Public Library, the DeCordova Museum, and Fidelity Corporation.

The GOLDEN Acrylic Lecture Demo is a fun, fast-paced informative lecture covering a technical review of acrylics and their varied application possibilities. The lecture demo will present information on pigments, viscosities, gels, mediums and more.

Learn how acrylics can be used as grounds for other media, such as watercolor or colored pencil; get key information on color mixing, blending and controlling drying time; and see how gels can be used to modify paint properties or create unique textural surfaces. From traditional to contemporary to mixed media, acrylics are infinitely versatile.

Artists of all levels will come away from this lecture demo with fresh new insights to feed their creative expression.

All participants will receive free product samples and a literature packet, including hand-painted color charts.

Registration begins August 28, 2013 - September 30, 2013 by emailing to:
