Hey sports fans. It's that time of year again and our beloved Red Sox have transitioned from "worst to first" in one year! And now they are once again playing the St. Louis Cardinals for the World Series Championship. Go Sox!! The New England Patriots are 5 and 2 thus far and they are playing hurt, without some key players. Truly this will be a test to find ways to compete against healthier teams to earn a berth in the NFL playoffs. Coach Belichick and Tom Brady will have to find ways to win once again while playing with major constraints. The Boston Bruins are off to a good start leading the Eastern Conference Atlantic Division with a 7 and 2 record. Then there is the Boston Celtics who begin another rebuilding year without Pierce, Garnet, Ray Allen and recuperating floor leader Rajon Rondo. Oh yea, they also will be led by a new head coach Brad Stevens formally a very successful head coach of Butler University. Given all of this, I'd say the situation is normal for New England sports. Speaking of challenges we are only three weeks away from having our fall show (Nov. 15th drop off and setup, Nov. 16th opening 10 am to 8 pm and Nov. 17th open from 12 pm to 4 pm followed by closing and take down). Don't forget your entry form must be sent in by Nov. 8th. I'm sure there will be some great artwork for our Judge T. A. (Ted) Charon to evaluate for awards. Thanks to all who have volunteered to help with the show. I'll e-mail a summary list of our volunteers as a reminder before the show.

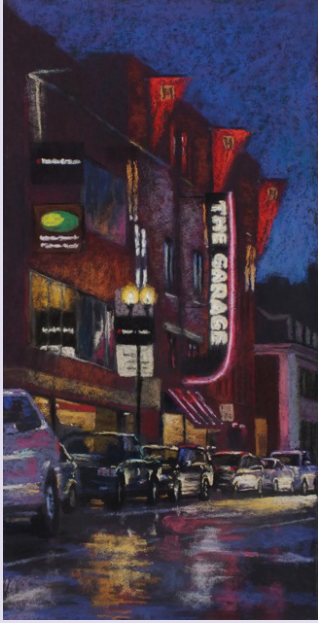

We will be having our scholarship raffle again this year. Please contact Tina Guarino (tinaguarinoart@gmail.com or 1-508-541-4685) and let her know what item or items you will be donating for the raffle. We are also having a silent auction of 8" x 10" framed artwork. Please bring the piece(s) you wish to have in the auction at our Nov. 6th meeting. We will frame the pieces you donate. I want to thank Adele Corrigan for organizing our workshop on Oct. 20th with Jonathan McPhillips. Fourteen members attended the workshop. Jonathan proved to be an excellent teacher as well as an accomplished artist. He explained what he was doing at each step during his demonstration. Afterwards he checked everyone's work offering praise and suggestions for making improvements. I believe everyone had a great time, including Jonathan. Art Creations now has the capability to do silk screening. Sam Homsy has made T-shirts with our FAA logo which can be purchased for $7.00. Sam can also print custom images (e.g., your artwork) on other surfaces as well like canvas bags, poster paper, etc. I'll bring some samples to our Nov. meeting and pass around an order sheet. Please contact Sam (samhomsy@yahoo.com or 1-781-389-3550) if you have questions or requests.

As always, I'm looking forward to seeing you at our meeting.

Take care, Frank once again

Meetings take place at the Franklin Senior Center, 10 Daniel McCahill St., Franklin, MA across from St. Mary's church, from 6:30 to ~9pm, the first Wednesday of every month, September through May. Refreshments and socialization are help from 6:30-6:45pm, followed by a short business meeting. A demonstration/lecture or workshop activity follows. Our meetings are open to the public and all are invited to attend.

Call for Entries

Post Road Art Center New England Themed Show 2013. We would love for you to join us here at our cozy shop for the opening reception on Thursday, November 7th from 5:30 to 8:00pm. There will be a wonderful selection of artwork to view and plenty of refreshments for all. We have also been making plans for our December show. We have decided to host a juried Small Works Show which will be made up of artwork that is a maximum of 18" in size (2-D= H+W or 3-D= H+W+L) or smaller. This year, those who are interested will have the opportunity to submit three pieces of work instead of just two since we will have more space on the walls! The drop off will be earlier than usual due to Thanksgiving. People will be able to submit their work from November 18th to Nov. 25th.
